Annex to the letter dated 12 September 2002 from the Permanent Representative of Cuba to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country

Note verbale dated 12 September 2002 from the Permanent Mission of Cuba to the United Nations addressed to the United States Mission to the United Nations

The Permanent Mission of Cuba to the United Nations presents its compliments to the United States Mission to the United Nations, and has the honour to express the Cuban Government's profound concern over the late issuance, without proper justification, of an entry visa to Ms. Norma Goicochea Estenoz, an Expert in the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions of the United Nations.

Ms. Goicochea Estenoz should have received her entry visa to the United States on 21 August 2002, according to the terms provided for the issuance of visas. However, the visa was not issued until 3 September 2002, preventing Ms. Goicochea Estenoz from attending the first four days of the work of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, owing to all the rearrangement of her travel itinerary.
